HOSPITALITY
Hospitality means receiving guests generously: my house is your house! Abraham and Sarah, the parents of us all, receive the Lord and get a wonderful response: "You will have now a son." Sarah laughs but then produces Isaac. Mary and Martha receive Jesus. Like Mary, we bask quietly in God's presence, and despite concern, should avoid over-fussiness in our worship. When we open ourselves to God, we share hospitality and the gift of God's Son. How do you receive the Lord?
