PARISH ASSEMBLY - PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL - UPDATE

In line with the intent to keep all members of the parish continually engaged and fully informed of ongoing deliberations on matters arising from the Parish Assembly, the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) confirms that the ideas and suggestions pertaining to the implementation of the Mission, Vision and Values of the Church as raised at the Parish Assembly have now been compiled and moving forward shall now be deliberated by the 50 duly elected representatives of the PPC at its upcoming meeting to be held on 18th September 2016. An update will be given as to the implementation as deliberated following the meeting. Given the importance of this meeting and impact on the parish a gentle reminder to all PPC members, to attend the meeting on Sunday, 18th September 2016 from 1.30pm to 4.30pm.

CONSULTATION ON THE PARISH CENTRE

The Building committee wishes to thank all parishioners who have given their comments and suggestions before and after viewing the display of the architect's plans of the building over the past three weeks and also at the consultation meeting on 22nd August.

Taking into consideration all this input, this project will now be finalised and hopefully we will be able to commence work on the building by January 2017.

Updates will be provided to parishioners as the work progresses.

HUMILITY

Today Jesus teaches us how to come to his heavenly wedding feast, not by crowding forward but by seeking a place after everyone else. Humility, the confidence to be oneself, is a lifetime's work. This strategy allows all to find their place before God. Jesus himself did this at the Last Supper, doing the slave's job of washing the apostles' feet. "The heart of a sensible person will reflect on parables, an attentive ear is the sage's dream." Are we, are you, listening to the Lord today?
