GOD’S CHOICE

The Trinity chooses us because God loves us even more than we love each other. After discerning who might be qualified, Peter and the rest left it to God to choose Matthias to replace Judas. Like Joseph and Matthias, we have known about Christ Jesus “beginning from the baptism of John until the day he was taken up from us.” (Acts 1:22). We have become witnesses to the resurrection. This is what we celebrate together, and this is the content of the Gospel of Mark, which we read this year. We know all this and are ready to share the Spirit that breathes life. God will choose each of us according to the divine plan. Although Joseph wasn’t chosen to join the Twelve, he got a different call.

Sunday Missal Readings for next weekend - 20 May

Acts 2:1-11 Gal 5:16-25 Jn 15:26-27; 12-15
